PREMIER LEAGUE SUPPORT FA OVER AGENTS CHALLENGE

Immediate Release

25 March 2007

The Premier League remains committed to the decision we took last June to implement the FA's new Agents Regulations at the earliest opportunity.

These proposals, finalised in structure last December, are an integral part of the future good governance of the game, which we consider to be both legally right and sustainable.

We believe The FA is right to resist the Association of Football Agents and we support their efforts to ensure these new rules are implemented as intended; any amendments should not impact on what the football authorities are trying to achieve.
